

Heidi Olson - High School Biology.

Ms. Olson is a graduate of UW-Stout and is from Marshfield, WI and is in her first year as a teacher after graduating from college. When away from the classroom, Ms. Olson loves visiting state parks and trying new restaurants. When asked about her experience so far as a teacher in the CG-B School District, “The administration, other teachers, parents, and students have been overwhelmingly open, supportive, and positive to no end”. Ms. Olson also appreciates how her students collectively understand the value of their education and how they continuously strive to leave her classroom with something more than when they entered it.

Rebecca Zimprich - Learning and Instruction Coordinator

Mrs. Zimprich obtained her Bachelor of Science Degree from UW-Milwaukee in elementary education and her Master of Education degree from Cardinal Stritch University in educational computing. She has worked in the educational field for 25 years as a technology teacher and coordinator, a classroom teacher for the Milwaukee Public Schools, an English Language teacher, and Title 1 support staff member. When away from serving teachers and students with technology support, Mrs. Zimprich volunteers her time for environmental organizations including the Urban Ecology Center, Havenwoods State Forest, and Schlitz Audubon Nature Center. In sharing about her experience so far with CG-B, “My experience has been both positive and welcoming. I am impressed with all of the technology in place in the district already. The staff and students are very receptive to learning new technology skills to help students develop 21st Century Skills”.

Ann Brogan - School Psychologist

Mrs. Brogan received her undergraduate degree from Eastern Michigan University located in Ypsilanti, Michigan in Special Education and her Master of Education Degree from Loyola University of Chicago in school psychology. She brings a great wealth of experience having served as a school psychologist for several years. In her free time, Mrs. Brogan loves to travel and has been to Scotland, Peru, Prague, and Austria. Mrs. Brogan has shared with both teachers and principals how impressed she is with the level of support, efficiency, and care that is provided to students. “The organization and administration are top notch. The teachers are appreciative and the kids are respectful and very well-behaved”.
